

Fortis Malar conducts a multi-specialty screening camp for employees of Greater Chennai Corporation at Ripon Building

The camp was organized to stress upon the need of taking regular health checks

Chennai 07th August 2019: Fortis Malar Hospital today organized a multi-specialty screening camp for over 200 employees of Greater Chennai Corporation at the Ripon Building which included manual scavengers, members from the Department of Solid Waste Management, conservancy workers and workers in-charge of cleaning and sweeping. The camp screened the participants for Hepatitis, Blood Pressure, Random Blood Sugar levels and body mass index. Ortho and cardiac tests were also conducted as a part of the screening process.

Commenting on the same, Mr. Nageswaran, Facility Director, Fortis Malar said "We at Fortis Malar are delighted to conduct a multi-specialty screening camp for employees of Greater Chennai Corporation. As age increases, one's vulnerability to certain disorders increase, so screening tests and health checks are advised to be taken regularly. Early diagnostic tests and specialist interventions can alter the disease course and lessen the effect of health hazards. We aim to conduct more such camps which will enable early detection and provide the right course of treatment."
